CYNTHIANA NEWS.

CYNTHIANA, NOVEMBER 10, 1870

A. J. MOREY, EDITOR.

KENTUCKY NEWS

Returns from the counties comprising the Lexington District gives Beck a majority of from 3,500 to 5,000. Jessamine county, gave Beck 50 majority. Last August it gave a radical majority.

In this, the 6th District, we learn that Kenton county will give a majority of 1,000 for Arthur. Wrightson's majority in the city of Newport is 312. It would not astonish us if he carried Campbell county.

Pendleton county will give Arthur some 30 majority.

Harrison gives Arthur 583 majority. In August 588 was the average majority for Democratic candidates—a falling off of 305 votes. The cause for this change must be an swered by those Democrats who did not vote.

THE ELECTION RETURNS!

DEMOCRATIC VICTORIES.

"How is this?"

NEW YORK, Nov. 9th, 1870. New York City gives Hoffman, Democratic candidate for Governor a majority of 50,000—and the State is Democratic by 30,000. A great gain in Congress is made.

The News from Missouri leaves but little doubt but that Gratz Brown, and the whole Conservative ticket has been elected by a big majority. The Legislature is all right.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 8.

The total vote of this city gives a Democratic majority for Governor of 29,240. Vaughan, Democratic candidate for Congress, is elected over W. J. Smith, former member, by perhaps 8,000 majority.

From present indications, Brown will be elected Governor by 50,000 majority.

In Maryland the Grant Administration attempted to control the elections, but Swann and Arthur, Democratic candidates for Congress were both elected.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 8.

The election passed off quietly in this city. Democratic candidates in Third District, elected by 4,665 majority, and in the Second by 4,026, total Democratic majority in the city, 8,631. Total vote cast 36,043.

Delaware has elected a Democratic Governor, Legislature and Congressmen.

In Tennessee the Democracy have elected a Governor and eight members of Congress, and it is believed that ten have been elected. Good for Tennessee.

Northern Democratic Journals assert that the election presents a "very sad" appearance especially for their radical friends. Yet! it is very sad."

Kentucky has gone Democratic by 50,000 majority.

COLEMANSVILLE KY., Nov. 5 1870.

Mr. A. J. MOREY.—Dear Friend: In last week's issue of your Stirring Democratic paper, I see you notice my intention to move to Ohio, in a few days, and that my old location will then be a good place for a Physician.

I wish you would say to the people in your next publication, that my partner Dr. Chas. Leuba, has succeeded me and that I recommend him to the candid consideration of an enlightened community; both for his moral worth and scientific medical attainments. He is a graduate of the Louisville school of medicine and I consider him well posted in the theory of medicine, in all its branches, and firmly believe he will make a first class Practitioner.

Truly yours, T. W. HEDGES.

Fire in Colemansville.

EUROPEAN WAR NEWS.

SATURDAY, November 5th. The English Cabinet was in extraordinary session yesterday. Earl Granville received a dispatch announcing the acceptance by Trochu of the armistice proposed by Count Bismarck. The protocol of the armistice is signed by General Trochu, Jules Favre, Arago, Ferry, Garnier Pergès, Pelletier, Picard and Simon on the part of the Provisional Government, and by Count Bismarck and General Von Moltke on the part of the Germans. The armistice commences on the 4th of November and ends on the 28th. A decree ordering the elections in France will be issued to day. The Constituent Assembly is convoked to meet on the 15th inst. A rumor was in circulation in London yesterday afternoon that the negotiations for an armistice at Versailles had failed. This report had a depressing influence on the markets. England having withdrawn her opposition to a cession of French territory to Germany, the tone of communication between the British Foreign Office and Count Bismarck has greatly improved. No official announcement of the armistice has been made at Tours. The election in Paris on the question of maintaining the powers of the Government of National Defence, resulted in an overwhelming majority in favor of the Government. Full particulars of the riot in Paris on Monday, are given in our dispatches. A telegram from Berne, Switzerland, says the Nationals and Mobiles were routed by the Prussians, near Thun, on Tuesday. Two Prussian army corps, recently at Metz, have commenced the siege of Thionville. Seventy thousand Prussian troops, from Metz, are now half way to Paris. Fifty thousand are marching on Garibaldi, at Besançon, which is surrounded. Garibaldi has twenty-five thousand men.

MONDAY, November 7th

A dispatch from Versailles, dated yesterday, says the provisional Government at Paris has finally rejected the protocol agreed upon by Thiers and Bismarck, although they had previously signified their approval of it. Thiers has received orders from Paris to inform Bismarck that his condition could not be accepted, and to return to the capital immediately. The cause of the rupture is believed to be the persistent demand of Bismarck for guarantees for a cession of territory. The Prussian ambassador at London says the war will continue all winter. A correspondent at Versailles telegraphs that on Saturday Thiers had an interview with Favre and Trochu at Billancourt. Thiers reported the agreement which had been concluded with Bismarck, which was approved by Favre and Trochu, who expressed the belief that they would be able to secure the support of the inhabitants of Paris in carrying out the proposition. On Friday the provisional Government issued an address to the people of Paris stating that no armistice would be concluded prejudicial to the interests of France or not embracing certain specified conditions. Paris journals to the 4th instant have been received at Versailles. There is plenty of bread, wine, preserved vegetables, poultry and an immense supply of salted meats in the city. Rochefort has resigned from the Committee of Defense, owing to a misunderstanding with the Government on the question of the Communal elections. Since that time he has not been seen. Two balloons from Paris, with five passengers, were captured by the Prussians on Saturday. A dispatch from Dole on the 4th inst., says Garibaldi with thirty Italian officers, have been taken prisoners. The bombardment of Neuve Breslach continues. A sortie by the garrison has been repulsed. A serious engagement took place on Saturday, on the road from Dijon to St. Jean de Losne. The Prussians though using artillery and mitrailleurs, had up to 7 P.M. gained no ground. The Prussians had been prevented from crossing the Saone.

TUESDAY, November 8th.

The Paris Moniteur says "Prussia, as she would neither consent to re-visitualing of Paris nor allow Alsace and Lorraine to vote in the election for delegates to the Constituent Assembly, assumes all the responsibility for the continuance of the war—Prussia, not France, has refused the armistice." The refusal to consent to a cession of territory is also assigned as one of the reasons for the unanimous rejection of the armistice by the members of the Provisional Government. A correspondent at Versailles telegraphed yesterday that Thiers had gone to Tours, and that in reality the negotiating parties never approached a basis of agreement for an armistice. Re-visitualing of Paris was insisted on from the first by Thiers, but steadily refused by Bismarck. All the journals at Tours express the bitterest resentment at the duplicity of Bismarck, who, while pretending to negotiate an armistice, thus gained time to bring up reinforcements and prevent an attack by the Army of the Loire, which could have taken the offensive with advantage. The Prussians are making the most active preparations for the bombardment of Paris. It is reported that the bombardment will commence to-day. The French Government has ordered the arrest of Marshal Bazaine and the officers of his staff wherever found. Fort Mortier, at New Breslach, capitulated on Sunday night. Two hundred and twenty prisoners and five cannons were captured. The Germans from Metz are advancing by forced marches on Amiens and Ronen.

WEDNESDAY, November 9. A Tours dispatch says a general battle was fought near Orleans yesterday. No news of the result of the fighting had been received. Thiers is expected to arrive at Tours to-day. A dispatch from Tours says on Monday a Prussian column, with two batteries and 1,500 cavalry attacked the outposts of the army of the Loire at Poisly and Laurent des Bois. The French drove them beyond Valliere. The Prussians left their dead and wounded on the field, and had sixty-four men captured. The French loss was four killed and thirty-one wounded. Verdun has capitulated to the Prussians. Count Bismarck states that the French Government having declared, through Thiers, its ability to accept an armistice on the basis of statu quo, the Count proposed that the French name a time for holding elections for the Constituent Assembly. In such an event, the Germans promised that absolute freedom of elections should be allowed, even in the territory occupied by the Prussians. A London telegram states that Jules Favre, with a majority of his colleagues, favored the scheme for an election, and urged the acceptance of the armistice as negotiated by Thiers. General Trochu dissented and carried his point. Metz has been made the capital of Lorraine. King William has issued an order that hereafter no person be allowed to enter or leave Paris. Five passengers have just been captured, and will be court-martialed for a violation of this order.

HARRISON COUNTY ELECTION RETURNS.

The following majorities were given at the different precincts in this county, for W. E. Arthur, for Congress;

Cynthiana, 130; Leesburg 96; Berryville, 12; Buena Vista 70; Richland, 80; Claysville, 38; Rutland, 40; Casons, 108; Total Major 583.

Emigration to the West.

We understand that Capts. R. F. Long and J. M. Givens, will about the middle of this month start for southern Colorado, in behalf of the Emigration Society of central Kentucky? to look up and report character, location and advantages of unoccupied lands there. Southern Colorado is said to be unexcelled in her agricultural and pristine lands, and the purpose of the Society is to locate its members in a body under the Homestead Act and particularly the amended Act of July 15th 1870 in behalf of Soldiers and Sailors in the late war. The land of Southern Colorado are traversed by the Head Waters of the Arkansas river, and with irrigation yield an abundance which to us is incredible and the cost of emigration is said to be but trifling. There is said to be no healthier climate in the world.—The following are the officers of the Society—President, Col. W. W. Bradley, Secretary Lieut. H. M. Magee; Treasurer, Capt. R. F. Long. Emigration to the great West this year has been unprecedented and bids fair to be greater the coming year, and at the present rate their will soon be no unoccupied lands for Homestead settlers. The Secretary H. M. Magee is Portmaitre at Cynthiana Ky., and will take pleasure in giving information to all who are desirous of uniting with the society.

A Fire in Frankfort.

By the terrible fire in Frankfort, which was the work of an incendiary, nearly the half of two squares in the very center of business were destroyed, together with a large amount of personal property. Among the losers by this disastrous conflagration are Rangendorf and Gleich cigar store, a building owned by V. Kaltelbrun; Fred Koen's confectionery, 1 building owned by Mrs. Gerard; M. Merchant, building owned by Mrs. Stoughton; Wm. Collay, residence and saloon; Green & Dehouy, dry goods store; Jno. Schweid, confectionery; Mrs. Redding, two store rooms and grocery; Joseph Lukermeir, grocery and residence; Wm. Cavanaugh, grocery; John Kiernan, grocery; Newman & Bros, grocery; Jerry Lee & Co., grocery; Noel & Bacon, livery stable; Peter Smith, barber shop; Evans' heir's splendid residence; W. C. Chiles' residence, Christian church, Odd Fellows' Hall. The aggregate loss is from $150,000 to $200,000; insurance from $75,000 to $100,000.

Accident to Judge Arthur.

The buggy of Judge Arthur, Democratic candidate for Congress, was upset on Fourth street, near Madison, yesterday morning. The Judge was considerably bruised by the fall he received, but continued to visit the polls during the afternoon. The accident was caused by one of the ugly humps which run through the middle of nearly all the streets of Covington since the water pipes were laid.

JAMES W. WALKER,
Corner of Sixth and Madison streets.
COVINGTON, KY.

A BODY AND MIND DISEASE.

Such is Dyspepsia. The stomach and the brain are too intimately allied for the one to suffer without the other, so that dyspepsia and despondency are inseparable. It may be added, too, that irritation of the stomach is almost invariably accompanied by irritation of the temper.

The invigorating and tranquilizing power of Hostetter's Bitters is most powerfully developed in cases of indigestion. The effect is comfortable and invigorating. A mild glow pervades the system, the chronic uneasiness in the region of the stomach is lessened, and the nervous restlessness which characterizes the disease is abated. This improvement is not transient. It is not succeeded by the return of the old symptoms, but is permanent. The effects of the medicine are more marked in cases where no other medicated stimulants are given for the complaint. Each dose seems to impart a permanent accession of healthful invigoration. But this is not all. The aperient and anti-bilious properties of the preparation are scarcely secondary in importance to its tonic virtues. If there is an overflow of bile in the system, Hostetter's Bitters is most effective in removing it. The effect upon the discharging organs is equally salutary, and in cases of constipation the cathartic action is just sufficient to produce the desired result gradually and without pain. The Bitters also promote healthy evaporation, and are particularly desirable at this season when cold spells of raw, unpleasant weather are apt to check the natural perspiration and produce congestion of the liver, lungs, and coils. The best safeguard against all diseases is bodily vigor, and this the great Vegetable Restorative essence promotes.

Religious. I have been engaged in a meeting at Boston Station since the fifth Sabbath in last month, and the meeting still continues with eight additions. I immersed yesterday in the presence of a large and attentive audience, and yesterday and last night had a crowded house, which has been the case all the week. I have been doing all the preaching myself, having meeting twice a day.

Respectfully J. N. BARREE,

Cynthiana, Ky., Nov. 7 1870.

More Premiums. Some months since Mr. G. R. Sharpe, of this county, sold Capt. H. Haden Smith, of Phillips County, Arkansas, a splendid mare—one of that style which would make an Arabian Chief or any other man proud. Mr. Smith took his mare to Arkansas, and the people of his county held a Fair near Helena, and received a premium as the best Harness Mare at that meeting. Such is the credit given to stock raised in Harrison County.

for the Cynthiana News.
KENTONTOWN, October 22, 1870.

Editor Cynthiana News:

DEAR SIR:—The people of Kentucky are beginning to look around for suitable persons to fill the offices of Governor and Lieutenant Governor. Already the names of a number of distinguished gentlemen have been named in connection with both offices, I hope it will not be considered presumption in me to suggest the name of one who is eminently qualified to fill the office of Lieutenant Governor, by his long experience in the halls of legislation, both State and National, he is well acquainted with parliamentary rules, a man of good business qualifications, a gentleman of popular manners and unblemished character, who would preside over the Senate with dignity and impartiality, one who would do honor to the State, a Democrat sound and true, one who has proved his fidelity to his party, one who never made war speeches before the break out of the late terrible war, and then when the struggle came, sunk into his hole and remained there until the war was over, one who was persecuted and maltreated for his sympathy for the people of the South, among whom he was raised, by the Federal authority, one who suffered in a federal prison for months for opinions sake, one who spent thousands of dollars to relieve the sufferings of the poor prisoners in Camp Chase, and when he knew he would never get any thing save the thanks of the poor prisoners, one who has stood upon the floor of Congress and done all in his power to stop the robbing career of the Radical party. I mean the name of the Hon. Thos. L. Jones. Indeed I would prefer that he should receive the nomination for Governor; but it is generally conceded that the Governor must come from the Southern portion of the State, as the present Governor is from this section of the State, we can with propriety claim the Lieutenant Governor.

If you see proper to give this a place in your paper, you can do so, it may be the means of calling out the views of others, and their preferences for others individuals.

Yours truly, ROBERTSON.

A Girl Possessed of the Devil.
[Correspondence of the Alta California.]

SAN JOSE, September 20.

A short time ago a family of wealth and respectability, who live near this city, went on a visit to their former home in a western State, and on their return brought back with them a niece, who was in ill health. Shortly after they had arrived at their home in this county, the girl began to exhibit a very strange condition of mental agitation, which would last for a few minutes and then leave the girl in her proper mind. When questioned as to her strange conduct she would disclaim any knowledge of her unusual manifestations, and express the greatest surprise at the inquiries of her relatives. These strange spells continued to grow more frequent and more violent, until finally the girl would make use of the most strong and extravagant speeches, talking in a profane and threatening manner, and professing to be the returned spirit of some bushwhacker who had been hanged by his own relatives in Missouri during the war. Her relatives then began to direct their questions to the spirit who claimed to have possession of the girl, and gained from it an acknowledgement like the following: "I was what you call a bushwhacker, and was killed by this girl's father, and, as I still feel a spirit of revenge against him, I have taken control of her to further my designs; I have nothing against the girl, and intend to do her no harm." Apparently to convince those present of his identity, the evil spirit went on to tell many things which had happened between himself and the girl's relatives (all of which was true), and finally told them that there was a letter on the way to them, giving information of the severe sickness of a little sister of the girl, whom he was using for his evil purpose. The letter alluded to arrived in a few days confirming the truth of what had been foretold. The relatives of the girl with whom she was living, thinking that the child might be insane, sent her to a private asylum in Alameda county, a few days ago and have learned that she is not disturbed any longer by the revengeful monsters. The spirit had told them before that he would leave the girl when she should be removed from among her relatives, but he would enter into some other member of the family. A day or so ago the people here received a letter from Missouri, stating that the father of the girl was afflicted in a manner which exactly corresponds with the former disorders of the child. The truth of the above narrative may be relied upon, as it comes from the parties directly connected with the strange affair, and who are upright honorable people.

SIMMONS'

The symptoms of liver complaint are uneasiness and pain in the side. Sometimes the pain is in the shoulder, and is mistaken for rheumatism. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness. Bowels in general costive, sometimes alternating with lax. The head is troubled with pain and dull, heavy sensation, considerable loss of memory, accompanied with painful sensations of living and undone, which ought to have been done. Often complained of weakness, debility, and low spirits. Sometimes, some of the above symptoms attend the disease, and at other times very few of them; but the Liver is generally the organ most involved. Cure the Liver with.
